

SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT for Spring Quarter 2020

Up to three scholarships of $4,000 each will be awarded to UW students pursuing aging-related research or careers related to provision of services to older adults.

Who is eligible:

- Currently enrolled UW undergraduate, graduate or professional students with an academic or career emphasis on aging, regardless of major. Applicants should have completed the first year of their program before applying
- UW Bothell, Seattle, and Tacoma students are welcome to apply
- International and HB1079 students are welcome to apply

What to submit:

- Application (uw.edu/uwra/scholarship-application) including unofficial transcript
- A 2019-2020 FAFSA (or non-citizen financial need assessment form) must be on file in the Student Financial Aid office

Evaluation criteria:

- Demonstrated experience in and commitment to paid or volunteer work benefiting older adults
- Academic performance
- Communication skills
- Financial need (as determined by the FAFSA)

Deadline for online receipt of all application materials is 12:00 noon, Wednesday, January 29, 2020

Graduate students: The UWRA also sponsors the UWRA Patricia Dougherty Fellowship in Aging. For information and application, visit grad.uw.edu/graduate-student-funding/uw-retirement-association-fellowship-in-aging/