Selected Grant Opportunities

APF Queen-Nellie Evans Scholarship

Deadline: November 15, 2020

The Queen-Nellie Evans Scholarship will recognize outstanding minority graduate students who have a demonstrated commitment to improving the conditions of marginalized communities. Preference is given to those who are preparing for a career in academia, clinical service delivery, or public policy and see their work as helping to improve the condition of marginalized communities after the completion of their graduate studies. Both master's and doctorate students are welcome to apply.

Rural Health Care Services Outreach Program

Deadline: December 12, 2020

The Outreach Program is a community-based grant program aimed towards promoting rural health care services by enhancing health care delivery to rural underserved populations in the local community or region. Through consortia of local health care and social service providers, communities can develop innovative approaches to challenges related to the specific health needs in rural areas that expand clinical and service capacity in rural communities.

Competitive and Administrative Supplements for Community Interventions to Reduce the Impact of COVID-19 on Health Disparity and Other Vulnerable Populations"

Deadline: December 30, 2020

Research is needed to test community interventions focused on the prevention (or slowing) of COVID-19 transmission, evaluate local and state policies and programs intended to mitigate COVID-19 exposure and improve adherence, and reduce the negative impact of the multifaceted consequences on the health of populations who experience health disparities and other vulnerable groups.

Digital Healthcare Interventions to Address the Secondary Health Effects Related to Social, Behavioral, and Economic Impact of COVID-19

Deadline: December 30, 2020

In order to significantly improve near term impact of treatment and identification of individuals at risk for, or experiencing worsening health secondary to the COVID-19 pandemic across the full lifespan, supplements will focus particularly on NIH-designated health disparity (racial/ethnic minorities, less privileged socioeconomic status, rural residents and sexual and gender minorities) and other populations with medical or social vulnerabilities.

Research Events

Community Opioid Intervention Pilot Project Webinar: How to Apply: Technical Assistance Webinar for New Applicants

November 4, 2020, 12pm - online

The technical assistance webinar will provide information on how to apply, including a brief overview of the funding cycle; application and submission process requirements; proposal requirements; and a review of proposal templates and examples. Each technical assistance webinar will be recorded and provide an opportunity to those not able to attend to view the webinar at their convenience.

The Future of Aging Symposium

Join for a series of online lectures and conversations centered on how this newest generation of older adults is forever altering the aging experience.

Dates and time vary depending on the speaker's availability. Each event is schedule to last no more than 1.5 hours. A Zoom invitation will be sent for each event.

Fellowships, Internships and Job Opportunities

Behavioral Health Workforce Education and Training \(BHWET\) Program for Professionals

Deadline: January 21, 2021

The purpose of the BHWET Program for Professionals is to increase the supply of behavioral health professionals while also improving distribution of a quality behavioral health workforce and thereby increasing access to behavioral health services. A special focus is placed on the knowledge and understanding of children, adolescents, and transitional-aged youth at risk for behavioral health disorders.

MD-PhD Training Program in Alzheimer's Disease and Its Related Dementias and the Behavioral and Social Sciences

Deadline: February 3, 2021

NIA's MD-PhD Training Program in Alzheimer's Disease and Its Related Dementias and the Behavioral and Social Sciences is designed to help strengthen the pipeline of physician-scientist leaders dedicated to using social and behavioral science approaches to addressing the nation's challenges posed by Alzheimer's disease and its related dementias (AD/ADRD). This FOA provides support to eligible domestic institutions to develop and implement effective approaches to integrated dual-degree training leading to the award of both an MD and a research doctorate degree (PhD or equivalent).

Conferences, Trainings and Workshops

Activating Communities for Change

November 10, 12, 17, and 19, 2020 – online

This four-session distance learning series offers participants an interactive opportunity to explore the prevention and regulatory landscape in order to better understand the system, analyze the current state of laws and regulations, and work toward activating communities for change.

Data for Black Lives Conference

December 11-13, 2020 Cambridge, MA

Data for Black Lives is a movement of activists, organizers, and mathematicians committed to the mission of using data science to create concrete and measurable change in the lives of Black people. But history tells a different story, one in which data is too often wielded as an instrument of oppression, reinforcing inequality and perpetuating injustice. Redlining was a data-driven enterprise that resulted in the systematic exclusion of Black communities from key financial services.

Call for Papers

Poverty, Inequality and Social Development: Innovations Around the World 22nd Biennial Conference of the International Consortium for Social Development

Deadline: November 30, 2020

The global COVID-19 pandemic and numerous other social challenges have had devastating impacts on lives and livelihoods across the globe, exacerbating poverty, inequality, and other social challenges. We invite papers, poster presentations, and session proposals from practitioners, researchers, students, community organizations, and policymakers. The conference will critically appraise the social challenges of our time and advance novel
