

SEATTLE COVID-19 ORAL HISTORY PROJECT

SEEKING STUDENT INTERNS

The Seattle COVID-19 Oral History Project (SCOHP) aims to collect the oral histories of workers from marginalized racial and ethnic groups who have been impacted by COVID-19. The goal is to create an oral history archive accessible to students, researchers and members of the general community.

SCOHP is looking for 8-12 Oral History Interns who will receive training in oral history methodology from the Labor Archives of Washington (LAW).
