EDWARD WILLIAM LANE, EGYPTOLOGIST AND ORIENTALIST: A BIOGRAPHICAL PERSPECTIVE

JASON THOMPSON

A Lecture by the American Research Center in Egypt – Northwest Chapter
Co-sponsored by the UW Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilization

09 May 2013
Thursday
7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Smith Hall 205
UW Campus

FREE and Open to the Public

JASON THOMPSON is a Visiting Associate Professor at Bates College. His recent publications include A History of Egypt from Earliest Times to the Present and Edward William Lane, 1801-1876. He is presently preparing a comprehensive history of Egyptology.

For more information about the AMERICAN RESEARCH CENTER IN EGYPT and this event contact at nw.arce@gmail.com or www.arce-nw.com