

ARABIC & ISLAMIC STUDIES EASA A. BATEH FELLOWSHIPS

This award is made possible by a generous donation from the Bateh family. This fund supports students who study Arabic language and/or demonstrate a deep commitment to Islamic culture in any of its aspects (religion, law, literature, etc.). Applicants must hold a 3.50 GPA or higher in his/her major and a 3.26 overall GPA.

Applicants should send a transcript (unofficial), two letters of recommendation, a research paper on a topic of Arabic or Islamic interest, and a statement of purpose outlining their interest and research concerning Arabic language and/or Islamic studies. Applications for the following year should be received by JANUARY 15.

Send all materials to:

Easa A. Bateh Fellowship Committee
c/o Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilization
229 Denny Hall, Box 353120
University of Washington
Seattle, WA 98195-3120

