University of Washington Center for Philosophy for Children is dedicated to introducing philosophy to K-12 students. The Center’s “Philosophers in the Schools” program educates University of Washington students about ways to introduce philosophy in K-12 classrooms, and then sends them into Seattle schools to conduct philosophy sessions at no cost to the schools. Since 1996 the program has introduced philosophy to thousands of K-12 students. The Center also runs workshops for teachers and parents about ways to facilitate philosophy discussions with young people.
