EOP Students Honored At 2010 Winter Recognition Reception

The Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity (OMA&D) held its 2010 Winter Recognition Reception on Thurs., Feb. 11, at Kane Hall to honor the efforts of outstanding Education Opportunity Program (EOP) students who achieved high academic success in their first quarter at UW.

The event included the presentation of several awards to students based on their performance in the fall, 2009, quarter. Paulos Belete Shiferaw received the Honor Award, while the High Scholar Awards went to Julio Cesar Ahumada, Diem Hong Thi Nguyen, Morice Martinez and Michael Willis. Twenty-three students also received Merit Awards.
