

Photo by Karl Smith

Incoming Freshman Jose Alvarez (Sunnyside High School), Executive Director of UW Alumni Association Chuck Blumenfeld, Incoming Freshmen Jordan En'Wzoh (Kamiakin High School), Norma Melchor (AC Davis High School), Lilian Bravo (AC Davis High School), Priscilla Hernandez (AC Davis High School), Brenda Martinez (Toppenish High School), Alexandra Carrasco (Toppenish High School), and Stephanie Risedorf (AC Davis High School) join Sheila Edwards Lange (fourth from the right), Vice President and Vice Provost for OMA&D, at the Eastern Washington Scholars Reception.

University of Washington Hosts Second Annual Eastern Washington Scholars Reception

The University of Washington's Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity hosted its second annual Eastern Washington Scholars Reception on Friday, August 22, 2008, at the Yakima Valley Museum. This event recognized and honored incoming freshmen along with their families for their hard work and dedication which led to the obtainment of academic scholarships. Each of these scholars achieved academic success while in high school, and will be bringing their talents to the University of Washington campus this fall. Thirty Eight scholars were invited from Eastern Washington and Tri-Cities High Schools including AC Davis in Yakima, Kamiakin, Sunnyside, Toppenish, Mabton, Prosser, Pasco, Highland, Southridge, Eisenhower, Grandview, and West Valley.