

PACTRANS | CSET REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 11, 2019
INTELLECTUAL HOUSE
UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

Bridging Innovations and Practice for Enhanced Mobility and Safety

The 2019 PacTrans | CSET Regional Transportation Conference will bring together transportation researchers, practitioners, and public officials from throughout the Pacific Northwest to build relationships and share fresh ideas. PacTrans focuses on data-driven solutions to the diverse mobility challenges of the Pacific Northwest. Meanwhile, the Center for Safety Equity in Transportation endeavors to provide everyone with fair and equitable access to a safe transportation system, particularly those living in rural, isolated, tribal and indigenous communities. This PacTrans/CSET conference will cover topics on mobility and safety.

Get there. Safely.
