

Washington Transportation Camp 2024

Free!

WA Transportation Camp is a FREE one-week residential summer program covering transportation topics such as urban planning, traffic safety, supply chain logistics, and the cutting-edge realm of connected and autonomous vehicles.

As a participant, you will:

- Take field trips with professionals to transportation facilities like the Northwest Region Transportation Management Center to gain insight into their inner workings.
- Showcase your knowledge in collaborative group projects.
- Make new friends and experience life on a college campus.
- Explore the potential for a future career in transportation—whether it's in engineering, planning, or beyond.
