

Pharmacy Class of 2005 Pledge of Professionalism

We, the UW School of Pharmacy Class of 2005, pledge to:

- Strive to develop and maintain a high standard of professionalism through service and dedication to all aspects of pharmacy
- Effectively communicate with patients and their families as well as other health care providers with the purpose of improving patients' quality of life
- Exemplify leadership with a positive enthusiastic attitude for the purpose of promoting change in the profession
- Endeavor to excel in an ongoing commitment to self-improvement and apply and maintain our skills and knowledge to achieve the highest standards of care for all patients
- Conduct and pursue the practice of pharmacy with utmost honesty, integrity and ethical values
- Above all, promote and advocate the well being of the patient through optimal patient care and achievement of outcomes, and accept responsibility as health care providers to practice humanitarianism.
