

Pharmacy Class of 2006 Pledge of Professionalism

We, the UW School of Pharmacy
Class of 2006, pledge to:

- Improve patients' quality of life by always putting them first and focusing on providing optimal care,
- Devote ourselves to serving all members of the community, without regard to personal gain, while upholding the highest standards of our profession,
- Develop and maintain the knowledge and competency required to provide the best quality care for our patients, and to continue in the lifelong learning process of the profession,
- Make a commitment, as part of the healthcare team, to provide top-notch, personalized patient care while serving as leaders in our communities,
- Create a respectful environment among patients, peers and the community,
- Communicate clearly and effectively with patients and healthcare professionals to optimize patient care,
- Display a willing and enthusiastic attitude in all of our academic and professional endeavors,
- Maintain a high level of ethical behavior, integrity, and honesty by continuing to exhibit professional behaviors to patients, family members, other professionals, as well as the public in order to preserve and continue the covenantal relationship that patients deserve.
