

Pharmacy Class of 2007

Pledge of Professionalism

We, the UW School of Pharmacy
Class of 2007, pledge to:

- Represent our profession by sustaining the values of integrity, honesty and accountability through our interactions with our patients, fellow health care professionals, and community,
- Demonstrate compassion, empathy and effective communication skills to our patients and peers in order to be attuned to their needs,
- Commit to selflessly provide optimal healthcare services to our communities and to keep the quality of life of those we serve as our primary goal,
- Obtain and maintain professional competence through lifelong learning in order to improve the quality of patient care and uphold the respect of our patients, peers, and other health care professionals,
- Advance the profession of pharmacy by taking proactive roles as leaders in the community, as students, and as members of a health care profession and serve as examples to our patients, peers, and other members of the health care team,
- Dedicate ourselves to the pursuit of scholarship to ensure optimal patient care in the profession of pharmacy, and
- Strive to maintain the adaptability necessary to provide optimal health care to meet the needs of patients, as the role of pharmacists continually changes.
