

Pharmacy Class of 2012

Pledge of Professionalism

We the class of 2012, pledge to uphold and reinforce the following essential values throughout our professional careers. These ideals are integral to the realm of healthcare and the ever-changing field of pharmacy.

We pledge to:

- Conduct ourselves in an altruistic manner by selflessly serving for the benefit and welfare of others.
- Be unwavering in our personal and professional integrity, interacting with others in an ethical and honest way.
- Demonstrate compassion to all those we encounter by empathizing with their individual experiences.
- Respect human dignity and diversity by conducting ourselves according to the principles and values that define our profession.
- Dedicate ourselves to advocating for our patients and the profession, to providing the highest level of patient care, and to continuing our education.
- Be accountable in both our words and actions to uphold the highest standards of practice.
