1. List five violations for which the Board could take action against a pharmacist's license.

2. List five violations for which the Board could take action against pharmacy license.

3. Are there special requirements for mail order pharmacies?

4. May a pharmacist compound an "OTC" drug?

5. For how long must the pharmacy maintain the following records: original prescriptions, refill records, drug purchase records, patient profiles? What if the patient is a minor?

6. Are there differences for legend drugs vs. controlled substances for record retention? If any of these can be maintained on the computer, how long do they need to be maintained "on-line"?

7. Do pharmacist licenses have to be on display? The original or official copy? Is a photocopy OK? Is it OK to obscure the licensee's address?

8. On what day of the month does a drug expire when only the month and year are included on the label?

9. If an Army or other armed forces physician issues a prescription for one of his/her patients, may you fill this prescription? What identifying number must an Army physician place on the prescription? From which practice sites may such prescriptions be issued?

10. When receiving a shipment of a Schedule II controlled substance, what action must be taken to comply with record-keeping requirements?

11. Make a list of information required by the DEA when conducting an inventory. List DEA's additional "recommended" information.

12. Who may sign a request for additional Schedule II order forms (DEA-222)? What is the significance of "power of attorney" with regard to DEA-222 forms?

13. What is the maximum number of refills allowed for C-3s through C-Vs under DEA and Washington regulations?

14. When may a pharmacist partially fill a Schedule II prescription? When a pharmacist is only able to provide a partial quantity of a Schedule II prescription, how long does s/he have to provide the remaining quantity?

15. What are the verification and retrieval requirements for legend drug and controlled substance prescription information entered into pharmacy computer systems? Does the controlled substance schedule make a difference? New prescription vs. refill?

16. When a prescription is transferred between pharmacies, what must each pharmacist do to keep proper records of the transfer? Differentiate between scheduled and legend drugs. Differentiate between available systems, e.g., written, telephone, FAX.

17. The Secretary of HHS has defined, by rule, the circumstances under which a pharmacist may accept an oral Schedule II EMERGENCY prescription. What are the requirements that must be met? How soon must the prescriber provide a signed prescription?
18 How does a pharmacy intern differ from a pharmacist regarding permitted activities?
What are the practice, documentation and reporting responsibilities of students when engaged in intern activities?
What are practice, documentation and reporting

19 What minimum sets of references, products, or equipment are required in all community pharmacies?

20 What are the current Washington requirements for patient counseling for new and refilled prescriptions?
Can printed materials satisfy the counseling requirement? Under what circumstances?
How is the counseling requirement satisfied for prescript

21 Is there any provision for dispensing an emergency refill supply of legend drugs when there are no refills left and the prescriber cannot be contacted? What is allowed/required?
Consider the following situation: An out-of-area patient comes to the ph

22 For how long are prescriptions for legend drugs or controlled substances (each schedule) valid from the date issued?

23 What is the maximum number of refills allowed for legend drugs in Washington?
Are "prn" refills permitted?
Consider a prescription for Maxide one daily #365 with "prn" refills. Could it be filled twice in the same year?

24 What are the differences between the OBRA-90 and the Washington State counseling requirements?

25 May a person be responsible manager / pharmacist-in-charge for more than one pharmacy?
Are there any special requirements to be responsible manager / pharmacist-in-charge?
Must every pharmacy have a responsible manager / pharmacist-in-charge?

26 What are the requirements for pharmacies under common ownership to share a single patient/prescription database?
What are the rules for prescription transfers in a pharmacy system with a common database?

27 If a patient refuses counseling, how should the refusal be documented?

28 Can refills of legend or drugs controlled substances be transferred from one pharmacy to another? Can they be transferred back?

29 Do pharmacy hours have to be posted? If so, where?

30 Can the store be open but the pharmacy department closed? Under what requirements?

31 Who may authorize a prescription drug to be dispensed in a NON-CRC?
How should the authorization be documented? When does the authorization expire?
Is a CRC required if you remove oral contraceptive tablets from a memory pack to dispense as emer

32 What are the requirements for electronic transfer of prescription information authorized by an individual with Washington prescriptive authority?
What are the differences for legend vs. scheduled drugs?
Who may physically initiate the transmissi

33 When are patient profiles (medication record systems) required? What information must be present?
What are the differences for inpatients vs. outpatients?
Distinguish between federal and Washington law. When must the profile be used?

34 What references should a pharmacist check to verify that an ingredient may be used in compounding prescriptions?

35 To whom must a pharmacist disclose the pharmacy's prescription prices?

36 What Schedule II drug may be used by humane societies to euthanize injured or unwanted animals? What legend drugs may be used?

37 Under what circumstances may a pharmacist fill prescriptions written in another state or country?

38 Distinguish between the duties of pharmacy technicians and pharmacy assistants in Washington? What are permitted ratios for pharmacists to technicians, assistants or interns? What is the difference between inpatient and outpatient practice?

39 What are special requirements, if any, to be a nuclear pharmacist? What is required on the label of a radiopharmaceutical agent?

40 List the diseases for which Schedule II stimulant drugs may be used in Washington.

41 Do patients have the option of demanding the brand name when substitution is permitted? How about patients whose prescriptions are paid for by public funds? May the pharmacist substitute a more expensive brand-name drug when the prescription spec

42 What essential information must the pharmacy obtain and record in the patient profile? May the patient refuse to provide information? If "yes", how should the refusal be documented? May the pharmacy accept a Post Office Box number in lieu o

43 When should a "preferred drug" be substituted for a therapeutically equivalent one in Washington?

44 What documentation is required of the pharmacist when product interchange ("generic substitution") is performed?

45 Under what conditions is therapeutic substitution (interchange) allowed?

46 What does "therapeutically equivalent" mean in Washington law?

47 What wording is required under the signature lines of prescriptions in Washington? How is this requirement satisfied for electronically transmitted prescriptions?

48 May a pharmacist repackage another pharmacy's prescription into "med-packs"?

49 What are the "medical conditions" for which a physician may recommend the use of marijuana in Washington?

50 Under what conditions may a pharmacy sell needles or syringes?

51 How does the Robinson-Patman Act restrict a hospital's use of prescription drugs that it purchases at special prices or on contract? (e.g., to whom may a hospital sell these drugs?)
52 Which is the most serious level of an FDA drug recall?

53 When must the Board of Pharmacy be notified of any of the following? How far in advance? change of responsible manager/pharmacist-in-charge, change of pharmacy address closing or sale of a pharmacy, change of pharmacy telephone number, change of an 54 Which health professionals can prescribe legend drugs and controlled substances (which classes) in Washington? See Who Can Prescribe exercise.

55 What are the labeling requirements for prescriptions in Washington? See Label Exercise.

56 Are there any required notices that must be displayed to the public in a community pharmacy?

57 What can be changed on a prescription for a C-II medication?

58 When dispensing a prescription for a generic drug, what must be recorded on the prescription (manual vs. electronic systems)?

59 What activities (patient, record keeping, notification, restrictions) are associated with dispensing an OTC C-V drug in Washington. How does Washington law differ from DEA requirements?

60 When may a prescription be dispensed if a pharmacist is not physically present?

61 How must a pharmacist's final check be documented (manual and electronic systems)?

62 How many Continuing Education hours must a pharmacist accumulate each year in Washington?

63 What are the consequences of a pharmacy receiving a score of 79 following an inspection?

64 What is the appropriate disposition of legend drugs returned by a patient to a pharmacy? When could legend drugs be re-dispensed?

65 May a physician prescribe controlled substances for himself or herself? For his or her family?