Question 7

Note: prescribers may NOT request blanket waivers. Go to the Consumer Products Safety Commission (CPSC) website, and look for their publications, there is one concerning CRC's. In part III of that booklet, there is a Q & A section that describes who can ask for a blanket waiver. For physicians, their requests for a prescription extend only to that prescription and any refills of that prescription and not to other prescriptions for that patient unless the non-crc request is renewed with each Rx.

True/False: Violation of a regulation could be considered negligence.
