

WebQ

7543 Quiz 5 - Answers

Question 1

Which of the following complaints does not fall under WA BOP jurisdiction?

- Pharmacist does not adequately counsel patients
- Pharmacist incorrectly fills prescription
- Pharmacist does not appropriately maintain inventory records
- Pharmacist sets unreasonably high prices for pharmacy products

Question 2

Who is eligible to file a complaint against a pharmacist?

- I. Patient
- II. Patient's physician
- III. Office staff at physician's office

- I only
- II only
- II and III
- I, II, III

Question 3

As a pharmacy intern, if you suspect that your colleague is diverting drugs, what would be the recommended course of action?

- Check your colleague's backpack when he/she is not looking to try and get a confirmation of your suspicions
- Report your suspicions to your supervisor or pharmacy manager
- Ask your colleague if he/she is diverting drugs
- Report your suspicions to the BOP

Question 4

Who may witness the signing of a Directive to withhold life-saving procedures under the WA State Natural Death Act?

- Primary physician
- Clergy
- Spouse
- Brother

Question 5

Which of the following is NOT true about healthcare directives in WA state?

- The Directive (or a copy) should be included in the patient's medical record
- The Directive may be oral or written
- The Directive may be for the refusal of life-sustaining procedures
- Revocation of the Directive may be oral or written

Question 6

The Uniform Disciplinary Act authorizes the BOP to do all of the following EXCEPT:

- Fine a drug store chain for violating BOP rules
- Deny licensing of pharmacists who are suspended in other states
- Initiate criminal proceedings against pharmacists who violate BOP rules
- Recommend substance abuse programs for impaired pharmacists

Question 7

What is the main difference between a Statement of Charges (SOC) and Notice of Correction (NOC)?

- SOC is meant to be correctional but not disciplinary
- NOC is meant to be correctional but not disciplinary
- SOC is frequently used for prescription errors
- The final resolution for NOC may be by settlement or court hearing

Question 8

According to the US FDA, what percentage of globally distributed drugs are counterfeit?

- 5%
- 10%
- 15%
- 20%

Question 9

Which of the following could be considered grounds for disciplinary action by the BOP?

- I. Posting advertisement for a controlled substance
- II. Allowing a technician to fill prescriptions during a pharmacist's lunch break
- III. Accepting free airline tickets from a pharmaceutical company representative

- I only
- II only
- II and III
- I, II, III

Question 10

Which of the following is NOT true about healthcare durable power of attorney in WA state?

- The attorney-in-fact may authorize to withhold life-sustaining procedures
- The attorney-in-fact may be the patient's spouse
- The attorney-in-fact may be the patient's primary care physician
- The attorney-in-fact may request care by a physician other than the patient's primary physician