

Print view of '8543 Quiz 4'

 Print this page

Question 1.

A pharmacy may advertise legend or prescription drug prices provided which of the following conditions is (are) satisfied?

- I. The advertising complies with all state and federal laws (including FDA and WA CPA)
- II. The advertising explains the advantages of using the brand name drug rather than the generic drug
- III. The advertising contains the dosage form and strength of the drug product advertised

- I only
- III only
- I and III only
- I, II and III

Question 2.

The most common types of fraud in the Qui Tam cases include, among others:

- I. Upcoding
- II. Antitrust activities
- III. Kickbacks

- I only
- III only
- I and III only
- I, II and III

Question 3.

Washington Board of Pharmacy standards require that pharmacies have a refrigerator that satisfies all of the following criteria

EXCEPT:

- Over/under temperature alarm
- Clean
- Temperature range of 36-46 degrees F
- No mixing of food and drugs

Question 4.

A patient in a LTC facility has a legend drug he would like to return for redistribution since his dose has changed recently. You may exchange the medication under which of the following circumstances?

- Never, it is not permitted to return medications to the pharmacy
- The medication was filled in a unit dose, sealed bingo card
- The medication was self-administered via a prescription bottle
- Patients in a long term care facility may always return medications to the pharmacy

Question 5.

In order to fulfill the WA BoP's continuing education requirement, you decide to attend a three-day conference on the legal aspects of health care. Which of the following activities will NOT be credited towards your 15-hour C.E. requirement?

- A) Participating in a workshop on pharmaceutical malpractice
- B) Participating in a question and answer period on new DEA rules
- C) Participating in a poster session about the social costs of fraud in health care
- D) Participating on a panel speaking about professional misconduct

Question 6.

Your pharmacy recently underwent an inspection by the Washington Board of Pharmacy and received a "conditional" rating. Which of the following must you do after the inspection:

- I. Post the inspection certificate
- II. Prepare for an FDA audit within 30 days
- III. Raise the inspection score to 90 or better within 60 days

- I only
- III only
- I and III only
- I, II and III

Question 7.

All of the following are examples of purposeful fraud EXCEPT:

- Having a Medicaid patient pay up front for their prescription
- Immunizations performed by a pharmacy technician
- Reversing the claim on a billed prescription if the patient does not pick it up
- Acquiring drug samples from the manufacturer and selling them to patients

Question 8.

An "impaired" pharmacist...

- Has a physical disability
- Is unable to practice pharmacy with competence due to a mental condition
- Is not registered with the DEA
- Has a license to practice pharmacy that is limited to extemporaneous compounding

Question 9.

Under what circumstances may a community pharmacy distribute or dispense legend drug samples?

- Always
- When approved by the FDA
- When approved by the WA BoP
- Never

Question 10.

Which of the following would be actionable as fraud?

- I. Coordinating your pharmacy's price structure with other independent pharmacies
- II. Receiving $10 for each referral you provide to a physician's office
- III. Using a billing code for 60 minutes of MTM when only 15 minutes were provided

- I only
- III only
- I and III only
- I, II and III