

PKU IN THE PAST & IN THE PRESENT

Match the person's name with the correct statement.

- |   |       |   |
|---|-------|---|
| 1. Dr. Fölling                                | _____ | Doctors at the PKU clinic in Seattle  |
| 2. Dr. Guthrie                                | _____ | Social worker at the UW PKU clinic who helps you understand yourself and PKU better |
| 3. You  | _____ | First person to discover and name PKU   |
| 4. Cris Trahms, Janie Heffernan, & Beth Ogata | _____ | Found an easy way to test newborn babies for PKU                                    |
| 5. Dr. Scott & Dr. Leavitt                    | _____ | Nutritionists at the UW PKU clinic who help you learn more about PKU management     |
| 6. Jan Garretson                              | _____ | First doctor to use formula and low phe foods for the treatment of PKU              |
| 7. Lisa Sniderman-King                        | _____ | Genetic Counselor at the UW PKU Clinic who can explain how PKU is inherited         |
| 8. Dr. Bickel                                 | _____ | Knows the best way to keep their own blood phe levels in the healthy range          |

University of Washington PKU Clinic
CHDD - Box 357920, Seattle, WA 98195

(206) 685-3015, Toll Free in Washington State 877-685-3015
<http://depts.washington.edu/pku>