

NATIONAL PKU NEWS

The National PKU News website can be found on the internet.

The address is: <http://www.pkunews.org/>

The National PKU News website contains links to information:

- About the National PKU News, including an index of past articles.
- About PKU, including the discovery of PKU, the history of PKU treatment, and questions and answers about PKU.
- Adults with PKU—information for and about adults with PKU.
- Diet-related information including tips for diet management from families, updates to the low-protein foods list, order forms for the food list and low-protein cookbooks and information about U.S. and European treatment guidelines.
- For students writing papers.
- Guthrie scholarships for college students with PKU.
- Personal stories.
- PKU legislation and policies, including reimbursement policies, lobbying guidelines, and a sample letter to legislators.
- PKU support information, including information about mailing lists, support groups and providers.
- Related links, including links related to organizations, low-protein food companies, and low-protein recipes.

University of Washington PKU Clinic
CHDD - Box 357920, Seattle, WA 98195

(206) 685-3015, Toll Free in Washington State 877-685-3015
<http://depts.washington.edu/pku> email: pku@u.washington.edu