

Who Are We?

The Pacific Northwest Chapter of the Medical Library Association (PNC/MLA) was established in October 1953 as a regional group, becoming an official chapter of MLA in October 1978.

We are an organization of librarians, individuals, and institutions promoting excellence in the delivery of health sciences information and committed to:

- * Promoting professional excellence among health care information providers.
- * Offering opportunities for education and professional growth.
- * Providing leadership in the health care information field in the Pacific Northwest and Western Canada.
- * Providing a forum for the exchange of ideas and information.
- * Promoting cooperation among health sciences libraries.
- * Representing the chapter and its members to MLA and other organizations.
