

Pacific Northwest CESU

Home

Announcements

Administration

Forms

Members

Becoming a Member

Starting a Project

Project Library

Newsletters

Funding and Resources

Search

Contact PNW CESU

Links

Monday, June 9, 2003

Managers Committee Meeting Agenda (draft)

LOCATION: S.H. Smith Center for Undergraduate Education (CUE) 419

1:00	Welcome & Introductions	Perry Brown, Univ. of MT and Gordon Bradley, Univ. of WA
------	------------------------------------	--

1:15	Overview of each CESU
------	------------------------------	--

	RM-CESU	Perry Brown
--	---------	-------------

	PNW-CESU	Gordon Bradley
--	----------	----------------

1:45	How do we get our partners involved or more so?
------	---	--

- Web as a tool

-Share experiences/issues relating to CESU web site usefulness

- Generating interest among other federal agency partners

- drawing from the NPS experience

- Administrative Issues

-Long term funding of CESU network

- How do we define success?

2:45	Overview of Natural Resource Sciences Research at WSU and ongoing efforts toward the formation of a School of Natural Resources and Environment.	Keith Blatner
------	---	---------------

3:00	Break
------	-------	--

3:10	Depart for Grizzly Bear Research Facility and Wild Ungulate/Small Mammal Research Facility
------	---	--

5:30	Reception with WSU and UIIdaho faculty	Location: Lewis Alumni Center
------	---	-------------------------------

7:30	Participants on their own for dinner	Materials on local restaurants will be provided at the meeting.
------	---	---

Tuesday, June 10, 2003

Managers' Committee Meeting & Symposium

LOCATION: Lighty Student Services, RM-405 (located between the Lewis Alumni Center and the CUE)
8:00	Managers up-and-coming issues – Brainstorming session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Types of training courses that could be developed for agency people • Critical issues workshop • Funding sources 	Perry Brown & Gordon Bradley
8:45	Delphi surveys for Inventory and Monitoring, the Greater Yellowstone and the Northern Colorado Plateau	Ed Krumpe and Troy Hall, University of Idaho
9:15	Hypospectral imagery and the Elwha Corridor: an example of multi agency cooperation through a CESU agreement.	Dr. Jeff Braatne, University of Idaho
9:35	Break
9:50	Saving the Grizzly, One Hair at a Time	John Shier, Montana State University
10:20	How a research catalog, small amounts of money, good students and the PNW CESU agreement make significant contributions to North Cascades National Parks biological science program	Dr. Regina Rochefort, NPS
10:40	Do military combat training overflights impact human users of selected Alaska protected areas: results from a large multi-agency social project	Dr. Jane Swanson, University of Washington
11:00	Removing Heavy Metals from Ground Water Systems by Precipitation	Frank Cheng, University of Idaho
11:30	Cultural resources management and Pacific West CESUs	Dr. David Louter, NPS
11:50	Lunch Break
Tuesday, June 10, 2003
PNW CESU Executive Committee Meeting Agenda
LOCATION: S.H. Smith Center for Undergraduate Education (CUE) 419
1:00	News from the Washington Office
	Issues to address from previous day's meeting – input from all partners <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brainstorm list

	Meeting our three-year goals – reporting and strategy session <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Effective communication• Demonstrate success• Minority involvement• Matching needs and expertise• Effective organization
3:00	Break
3:15	Address issues raised not covered by above discussion
4:00	Adjourn