

Summer Academic Enrichment Program

Virginia Commonwealth University

The Summer Academic Enrichment Program (SAEP) is an interdisciplinary program featuring dentistry, medicine, pharmacy and physical therapy at VCU! It is a challenging opportunity to develop academic skills that will help individuals become competitive for admissions in a health professions track of their choice!

Physical Therapy

Program Highlights

- ◆ Graduate level coursework
- ◆ Discipline specific course material
- ◆ Admissions workshops
- ◆ Test taking skills
- ◆ Book discussions
- ◆ Professional school exam review

Pharmacy

VCU Medical Center
Virginia Commonwealth University

Medicine

Program Information

- ◆ May 29, 2012– July 6, 2012
- ◆ Located at VCU Medical College of Virginia Campus
- ◆ Housing provided
- ◆ Stipend provided

Dentistry

Apply Today!

Online application: www.dhsd.vcu.edu
November 15, 2011– March 1, 2012

Apply to the discipline specific track of your interest—dentistry, medicine, pharmacy, or physical therapy!

Application requirements:

- *Completed at least three years of college course work, including organic chemistry (note: organic chemistry not required for physical therapy track)
- *Strong interest in attending health professions school at VCU
- *Cumulative GPA of 2.75
- *Two letters of reference
- *Personal statement
- *Transcript

Questions?! Contact us at: pipelineapp@vcu.edu or 804-827-0982