

SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT for Spring 2012

Up to three scholarships of $3,000 each are available to be awarded to UW students studying toward a career in aging research or provision of services to older adults

You are eligible to apply if you are a UW undergraduate or graduate student and your career emphasis is on aging. You may apply as a student of any academic major that offers that focus.

Scholarships are based on financial need and demonstrated promise. Both U.S. and international students are eligible; all applicants must complete a 2011-2012 FAFSA form as a means to determine financial need. Applications will be evaluated based on candidates' experience in and commitment to working with older people (paid or volunteer); academic performance; communication skills; financial need; and humanitarian perspective.

Applications are available for completion online by accessing the Catalyst drop box:
<https://catalyst.uw.edu/collectit/dropbox/andolcl/18887>.

Deadline for online receipt of all application materials is 5:00 p.m., Tuesday February 7, 2012
