

Health Care Policy in the United States: Where do we go from here?

A debate between experts on a single payer approach to health insurance and the Affordable Care Act

Speakers

Dr. Hugh Foy, Professor of Surgery at UW and trauma surgeon at Harborview Medical Center. Co-founder of Physicians for a National Health Program Western Washington chapter.

Dr. Bob Crittenden, founder of a 90-organization coalition for healthcare access, worked for the WA governor on health policy, and writes frequently for the Seattle Times and other media.

Moderated by Professor Aaron Katz, Director of the Leadership, Policy, and Management Track of the Global Health MPH program at UW.

Date: January 16, 2013

Time: 6-7:30pm

Food served from 5:30-6pm

Place: T-747

UW Health Sciences Building

Contact: Anna Walton

waltona@uw.edu