

SINGLE PAYER HEALTHCARE

Drink. Eat. And meet the nation's experts on single payer systems.

Drs. Andy Coates and Gerald Friedman are coming to Seattle and they want to meet you! They will present a brief overview of single payer policies and their impact on patient care, health systems, and economics and open up the rest of the time for shared conversation and a meet and greet session.

Gerald Friedman, PhD
Professor, Department of Economics
University of Massachusetts

Dr. Friedman has done economic impact studies of state single payer plans for Massachusetts, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Colorado, as well as one for national PNHP.

Andy Coates, MD
President
Physicians for a National Health Program

Dr. Coates is assistant professor of medicine and psychiatry at Albany Medical College and practices hospital medicine at a community hospital in upstate New York.
