

YOU ARE INVITED!

OUTBREAK! Reimagining Death and Life, Disease and Health

2013 Summer Institute in the Arts & Humanities Student Presentations

Friday, August 23, 2013

9 am – 4:30 pm

Allen Library Auditorium

Session I: Re-representing "Outbreak" through Compassion and Language

Mollie Holmberg, Biology and Mathematics ♦ David Roy Chen, Public Health ♦ Sarah Kislak, Public Health and CHID ♦ Vedran Jankovic, English

Session II: Uncovering Outbreaks: The Invisible Nature of Disease

Oliver Miska, Comparative History of Ideas ♦ Omar J. Acosta, Pre-Social Sciences ♦ Sharon Pan, Public Health ♦ Jennifer Look, Pre-Health Sciences

Session III: Narrating Health and Disease: Institutional Sovereignty and Otherness

Elizabeth Jansen, Public Health ♦ William Tsang, Biology ♦ Vincent Quang Pham, English ♦ Louie Vital, Pre-Social Sciences

Session IV: Social Bodies: The Politics of Health and Self

Samuel Pizelo, English ♦ Leah Trangen, Public Health ♦ Katherine Schroeder, Russian Language, Literature, & Culture and International Studies ♦ James Kelley, Geography and Social Welfare

Session V: Reframing Health Narratives in Overlooked Communities

Meredith Rose (Rosie) Morrow-Okon, International Studies ♦ Brandie Nordstrum, Anthropology: Medical Anthropology & Global Health ♦ Vickie Satele, Pre-Sciences ♦ Rachel Schlotfeldt, English

2013 Teaching Team:

Luke Bergmann, Associate Professor, Geography

María Elena García, Assistant Professor, Comparative History of Ideas and Jackson School of International Studies

Celia Lowe, Associate Professor, Anthropology and Jackson School of International Studies

Matthew Sparke, Professor, Geography, Jackson School of International Studies, and Global Health

A complete program will be available soon at expd.uw.edu/urp/sinst/.

The Summer Institute in the Arts & Humanities supports UW undergraduates to engage in intensive scholarly research with faculty. The Institute is sponsored by Undergraduate Academic Affairs, the Simpson Center for the Humanities, the Office of Research, Summer Quarter, the Undergraduate Research Program, and the Mary Gates Endowment for Students.