

Here's where you can go with CHID Study Abroad Programs 2015-2016

Sponsored by the UW Comparative History of Ideas Program

SPRING 2015:

Italy

The Cultural Legacy of Padova, Venice, Verona, Florence, and Rome

Learn about Italy's rich historical layers through the study of literature, philosophy, and the important monuments and sites where these texts originated.

Prague, Czech Republic

Between the East and West: Discovering Central Europe

This program explores key Central European issues such as the tragedy of the Holocaust, the nature and impact of the communist system, and the hopes and tensions of the European Union.

San Sebastián and Barcelona, Spain

The Basques, the Catalans, and Spain

This program studies the political and cultural struggles of two unique cultures in Spain, with a focus on the ideas of nationhood and identity.

SUMMER 2015:

Amsterdam

Visualizing the Invisible: Design and Society in Amsterdam

Explore cutting-edge design culture in the Netherlands through direct work with Dutch artists and designers.

Martinique

Ecology and Empire: Language, Culture, and Environment in Martinique

Study the interaction between "nature" and "culture" through this Caribbean island's literature, cinema, language, and the history of its social and environmental movements.

Peru

The Arts of Politics: Cultural Agency and Social Movements in Contemporary Peru

Peru

Engage with the political, social, and cultural construction of contemporary Peru by working directly with artists and activists in the capital city of Lima.

Viet Nam

Building for Peace in the Wake of War

Learn about the legacy of the Viet Nam war and take part in the ongoing rebuilding efforts by studying and doing service learning with local academics and communities.

Bangalore, India

Social Justice and NGO Activism

Everyone talks about becoming a "global citizen," but what does this really mean? Explore this question by learning from social justice advocates in this bustling and quickly growing city.

FALL 2015:

Berlin, Germany

Through the Prism of Berlin: The Politics of Space, Place, and Social Transformation

Learn about Germany's history, unification, and integration with the European Union through an in-depth exploration of its capital city.

Prague, Czech Republic

Between the East and West: Discovering Central Europe

This program explores key Central European issues such as the tragedy of the Holocaust, the nature and impact of the communist system, and the hopes and tensions of the European Union.

WINTER 2016:

Rome, Budapest, and Istanbul

Legacies of Empires

Study the lasting effects of the Roman, Byzantine, and Ottoman empires on the shape of contemporary Europe. This program also focuses on the plight of the Roma people in these three locations.

Why study abroad with CHID?

Our programs are among the most innovative study abroad experiences at UW.

You'll be part of a tight-knit learning community, led by talented UW faculty, engaging directly with issues, topics, and people at your destination.

Most of our programs do not require a foreign language.

Students from any major and any year are eligible.

You can use almost any form of financial aid, and there are scholarships available too.

CHID will also be offering Early Fall Exploration Seminars in 2015!

Check our website for updates on these programs, or email chidint@uw.edu to find out more.

Leave your comfort zone.

chid.washington.edu

chidint@uw.edu

