A Reclaiming Childhood Event

CONSTRUCTING CHILDHOOD

April 24-June 23, 2007

Room 381L, Allen Library, 3rdFloor
University of Washington

Constructing Childhood is a multi-media installation exhibiting work by young people reflecting on their experiences of childhood. Using a three-dimensional model of a swing-set as an art platform, Artistic Director Cheryll Hidalgo includes two and three-dimensional visual art, poetry, essays, soundscapes, spoken words, and video/film by teens in the exhibition.
