WHY: The purpose of this program is to help students distinguish themselves from the other thousands of applicants that apply to the University of Washington every year. Washington State's educational environment is changing; programs have become more stringent and admission standards are also on the rise. However, it has often been the case that a well-written personal statement can make the difference between acceptance and denial! This seminar focuses on comprehensive writing skills, and individual advising. All of this is provided to you at NO COST! PARTICIPATION IN UW ADMIT DOES NOT GUARANTEE ADMISSIONS

WHO: High school seniors (graduating in June 2010), with a cumulative G.P.A of 3.0 or higher (no exceptions), who are interested in applying to the UW and other 4-year colleges or universities, are welcome to attend. The program focuses its resources on under-represented minorities (African American, Melanesian, Polynesian, Micronesian, Hispanic/Latino, or Native American/Alaskan Indian), but application to and participation in the program is not limited to these groups.

What do I need to do? Mail your complete application in by Friday, June 26th, 2009 and include:

- ✓ UW ADMIT.EDU Application and Consent Form
- ✓ Your most recent high school transcript or academic summary (note: unofficial information will be accepted)

Send Application in ASAP as space is limited!

Parent/Guardian Statement of Consent

My child, _____, has my permission to participate in the University of Washington's UW ADMIT.EDU admissions program.

I release the University of Washington ("the University"), and its respective directors, officers, agents, and employees (collectively, "Releases") from liability for any loss, damage, injury or illness resulting from my child's participation in this activity.

On behalf of my child and myself, I promise that I will not institute, prosecute, or in any way aid in the prosecution of any claim, demand, action, or cause of action against the Releases or any of them.

In the case of injury or illness, I authorize University representatives to seek all necessary medical attention for my child. In such case, I understand that I will be notified as soon as possible and that my insurance carrier or I am responsible for any and all medical expenses incurred. I remain fully responsible for any actions taken by my child.

I also note that – though my child will be accompanied much of the time by the Releases – they cannot monitor my child 100% of the time. If the University discovers that my child has left his/her group, or has done something to risk his/her safety or the safety of someone else, I will be called and my child asked to leave the program immediately.

I further understand that my child's attendance at the UW ADMIT.EDU Workshop may involve coverage by the media. I hereby release any claim I may have surrounding rights to my child's name, image, voice, or likeness, and I agree that the University may use my child's name, image, voice, or likeness in connection with publicity for the University of Washington and its recruitment efforts.

I verify that I have read and understood this document and agree to its terms.
