Want to Start a New Interest Group?

If you have an interest you would like to explore with other UWRA members, consider starting a new UWRA interest group. UWRA will help you with publicity and possible venues.

For information contact the UWRA office at (206) 543-8600.

UWFA Interest Groups

UWRA members may join UW Faculty Auxiliary (UWFA) interest groups. For a list of UWFA interest groups, go to

<http://depts.washington.edu/uwfacaux/interest2.html>

Or request a list by email: uwfacaux@uw.edu

Likewise, members of the UWFA are welcome to participate in UWRA interest groups.

UWRA Interest Groups

UWRA members organize interest groups to learn, explore, build skills and connect with other members.

Join in! Reconnect with colleagues. Share interests and experiences. Expand your horizons.

Call the interest group coordinator listed with each group's description for more information about that group.

Birding

Half- or full-day local field trips, some overnights to more distant areas. Transportation is by carpool. A typical trip is 12-20 people; a few are accomplished birders but most are learners. Beginners are welcome! Binoculars are helpful. If you would like to receive monthly email notices on the Birding Group, please email Barbara Clark.
