

SAHAPTIN LANGUAGE DIALOGUE III
Virginia Beavert, Instructor-Developer
Heritage College, Toppenish, WA 98948

9/25/97 COMMUNICATION DIALOGUE

I. Mish nam wa, xay (tl'aks)? How are you, (man/girl friend)

Shix nash wa, ku mish I'm fine, and how are you recently?
nam aw wa imk?

Shix aw. I'm fine.

Minan nam wacha ikwaal? Where have you been all this time?

ADDITIONAL WORDS TO USE

KAIA maternal grandmother

TILA maternal grandfather

ALA paternal grandmother

PUSHA paternal grandfather

AWITAAI in-law (addressing a male in-law)

AWIT in-law (addressing a female in-law)

XAXA Aunt

KAKA uncle

WIYAT'ISH MASH CHAW K'INWA.

I have not seen you for a long time.

wiyat'ish long time

kinu see (Verb, 'to see') k'inwa seen (past participle of, 'see')

MISH MASH WA AYAT(iwinsh)? (miyanashma children, miyalas baby)

How is your wife(husband)?

SHIX MASH ANACH'AXI K'INWA.

It was good to have seen you again.