

Adverbs answer the question "how, what, where". An adverb can express concepts of time [tipa], place [pa, kan. yaw], degree [txaw], manner [ki, ni, yi], and number [singular, dual, plural], similar to an adjective without changing the meaning:

Aw iwa mitaaitpa	"It is now 3 o'clock"
Na'ilas iwa iniiipa.	" Mom is at home."
Watim iwacha laxuyxtxaw.	"Yesterday was the hottest."
Sapkitwani i-sinwiya.	"He spoke carefully."
Chaw tuyi awa iwinsh.	"Her husband is destitute." (he has nothing
