

Different translation: My father and grandfather's son-in-law will go to town.

When you are referring to grandfather third person reference you call him "i'n-tila." Na-tu'tas" is the first person in reference.

i'n-kala, i'n-ala, 3rd person na-kala, na-ala 1st person

Nmi-kan to _____ someone's place. Inmi-kan To my.....

Another puzzle for you(Hah): Inmiyaw to my (place)
Imyuuk to your(place)
Piimiyuuk to his (place)
Piimyuuk to their (place)

And another: Tux to go back (from where you came)

I-tux-sha iniit-yaw. He is going back to the house.
I-tux-sha iniit-knik. He is coming back from the house.
