

I. REGULAR VERBS

There are regular conjugations in the Indian language.
The infinitives of these conjugations are as follows:

First conjugation: -sha -ing sɪnwi-sha	speaking/talking sapsikw'a-sha	teaching wiwanik-sha	reading/studying

Second conjugation: -shana wina-shana	went chii-	drank

wiwanikshana	read/studied sɪnwi-shana	spoke

Third conjugation: -ta

tkwata-ta	will eat
yik-ta	will listen
mits'ixwa-ta	will listen (emphasis; pay attention) yik-ta	will hear

Fourth conjugation: Objective -at'a wiwanik-at'a	to want to read to want to study tkwatat-at'a	want to eat sɪnwit-at'a	to want to speak sapsikw'at-at'a	to want to teach chiit-at'a	to want to drink