

Review Consonants: Monday, April 14, 200 Virginia Beavert

2. Review coronals: s, she, ts, ts', tsh, l, tl, tl', ł, łł. describe the place of articulation, alveolar, dental, paleo-alveolar consonants.
3. Place where the tongue is placed in the mouth to make the sound.

This is a story: Advice To The Lovelorn.

A well-meaning relative shielding aunt from heartbreak over an ex-husband who is deliberately showing off his new love.

4. Sísa, winam amash mish wii'inta. Auntie, come here I want to tell you something.
5. Shaakwín, atway im'mam, akut ipamaliita náχsh álχayχpa. Someone, your past husband, I heard tell, is getting married next month.
3. Tsa'atsimk'ayakut, (hapwák pawishanamta ichin)niimiyaw tawnyaw. Soon, I heard, (both of them will move here) to our town.
4. Ts'i'itni' yakut iwa yanway. I heard the poor thing is one-eyed.
5. Tshish χash ik'iinani~~ishana~~ tuuman. He must (have been peeking inside) someone's thighs.
6. Laak nam (awiyach'aakta mun, kunam) shiχ áxtwayta amtanatnan. You might (encounter her sometime) be cordial to the bride.
7. (Tl'ápxi) nam mish pχwishata (kunam imktya) pinatmaakta.. No matter how you feel, you must respect yourself.
8. Tl'ány) iwa, chaw nam ákíchkta. He's garbage, don't pay attention to him. pay attention to something or someone something that is worth being Pnimk nam itikná nishayktnik, chaw nam imk winana. He's the one who ordered you out of the home, you didn't leave.
10. Tłuptłup taχnaynam kw'alatki, anaku iwa chaw tun pashwini pink.) You should be jumping up and down with happiness, because he's not worthy.
11. Ii, tl'aaxwki timnaki ttuushma papa'átwiχa ku tl'iyáwitmiyaw papanaknúwiχa. Túnχ χash áwa chinmi iwínshmi timna. Yes, there some who love each other with all their heart and they take care of each other all their life. This man must not have that kind of heart.

chaw mach a k'ichk-ka

mean to get out or go away*