

To hope in vain?

It's hopeless to make a wish...it's hopeless they say
Get up, smile, throw yourself on the grass
Wonder and dream, dream the platonic life
You're too gullible they say you're too idealistic, they say
Be a girl and lay there in the sun.
Get what you have always dreamed of
Don't worry, smile be happy.
Let them think what they want

Those non-believers.

Pretty soon they'll regret not hoping
Not dreaming
Not blowing their wish.
Or lying on the grass.

To hope in vain – they say.
Well, I say wait and wish
Pick a dandelion
