

University of Washington Botanic Gardens

UW Botanic Gardens encompasses two sites, the Washington Park Arboretum on the south side of Union Bay and the Center for Urban Horticulture on the north side. The Arboretum houses a vibrant collection of more than 20,000 living plants from around the world. The Center for Urban Horticulture includes demonstration gardens and natural areas. Both sites offer excellent opportunities for exercise, exploration, and wildlife viewing.

TO CENTER FOR URBAN HORTICULTURE

TO FREEWAYS AND UW

520

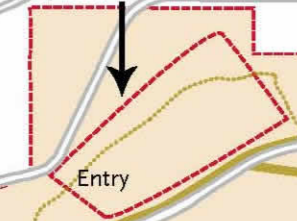

MARSH ISLAND

UNION BAY

FOSTER ISLAND

100' 300' 500'

JAPANESE GARDEN

Entry

Stone Cottage

Azalea Way (.75mi)

Greenhouses
GRAHAM VISITORS CENTER

DUCK BAY

Foster Island Trailhead

Viburnums

Walnut Family

Pinetum

Hollies

Hybrid Rhododendrons

Woodland Garden

Wilcox Footbridge

Oak Family

Pacific Connections Garden

Lookout Gazebo

Birches & Poplars

Magnolia Family

Asiatic Maples

Japanese Maples

Winter Garden

Shelter

Witch Hazel Family

Rhododendron Glen

Legumes

Mountain Ashes

Meadow

Greenhouses

Lindens

FOSTER ISLAND RD.

FOSTER ISLAND

BROADMOOR GOLF COURSE

E. MADISON ST.

24TH AVE E.

MONTLAKE BLVD. E.

E. NEWTON ST.

E. LYNN ST.

LAKE WA BLVD E.

E. INTERLAKEN BLVD.

LAKE WASHINGTON BLVD E.

FOSTER ISLAND RD.

ARBORETUM DR. E.

