

Public Culture/Engaged Scholarship HUM 595 COURSES

Courses in this series explore relations among cultural research, public practice, and diverse forms of community engagement.

Crosslisted with Masters of Arts in Cultural Studies (MACS) courses in Interdisciplinary Arts & Sciences at UW Bothell as well as others available through UW Seattle departments.

For more information, see www.simpsoncenter.org (“UW Courses”) or <http://www.uwb.edu/IAS/macs/>

WINTER 2009

Issues in Cultural Activism and Advocacy (Eric Stewart, IAS-UWB)

Issues in Media Culture (Susan Harewood, IAS-UWB)

Topics in Arts and Cultural Policy: Environmental Politics (Ben Gardner, IAS-UWB)

SPRING: 2009

Issues in Public History and Culture (Linda Watts, IAS-UWB)

Approaches to Textual Research (Jeanne Heuving, IAS-UWB)