

CHILDREN OF WAR

SYMPOSIUM

March 4 – 5, 2005
Smith 102, UW

Children of War brings Spanish Civil War veterans and survivors together with psychologists, artists, literary scholars, archivists, and children's rights activists to explore the transformation of trauma and memory in art and expression.

Friday, March 4

- 5 pm: Keynote: "Children of the Spanish Civil War"
 Anthony L. Geist (University of Washington)
- 6:30 – 8:30 pm: Reception at the Jacob Lawrence Gallery, UW School of Art

Saturday, March 5

- 10 am: Children, Trauma, Art
 Kathleen Kostelny (Erikson Institute, Chicago)
 Janice Hoshino (Psychology and Art Therapy, Antioch University)
 Moderator: Barbara Crook (Seattle)
- 12 noon: Performance at Jacob Lawrence Gallery (UW School of Art):
 A/Wake and at Peace:
 A Performative Dialogue with War's Wounded Children
 Elyse Pineau (Speech Communication, Southern Illinois University)
- 2 pm: Testimonies (1): Children of the Spanish Civil War
 Angela Giral (Columbia University); Marysa Navarro (Dartmouth
 College); Carlos Blanco-Aguinaga (University of California, San Diego). Moderated by Joan Ullman (UW)
- 4 pm: Testimonies (2): Veterans
 Virginia Malbin (Social Worker, Portland, OR); Abe Osheroff
 (Veteran, Abraham Lincoln Brigade, Seattle). Moderated by Peter
 Carroll (Chair, Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives).