

Call for Volunteers

Women Who Rock – UnConference and Film Festival

Making Scenes, Building Communities Conference

Looking for Volunteers to help with registration and work the event for the Women Who Rock UnConference and Film Festival through the University of Washington. Event features all day activities and keynote speaker Nobuko Miyamoto. This is a great opportunity to meet a diverse group of scholars, activists, musicians, and community members engaging in dialogue around Women and Music.

Find out more about the event at:

www.womenwhorockcommunity.org

Date: March 9th

Time: 10am-11pm

Location: Washington Hall - 153 14th Ave Seattle, Washington 98122

Set up/Registration: (10: 30 – 2 :00)

Assist in setting up the registration table and registering guests as they arrive, taking their information and answering any questions they may have as the event begins.

Greeter/Event Assistant: (10:00 – 2:00/ 2:00 – 6:00/ 6:00 – 11:00)

Help the crowd navigate the UnConference and greet guests as they come in the door. Explain the UnConference and encourage audience participation in open discussion. Depending on the time slot volunteers may be helping with organization of open mic hour, setting up rooms, escorting artists/musicians, coffee break set-up, clean up, etc.

Children's Helper: (12:00 – 2:00)

Volunteer to work in the Children's corner. Join/assist children in Mottainai dance workshop with featured guest Nobuko Miyamoto.

To volunteer please contact womenwhorockproject@gmail.com with the subject heading: Women Who Rock Conference Volunteer and include the following information:

NAME

PHONE NUMBER

AVAILABILITY

DO YOU HAVE ANY TECHNICAL SKILLS