Authors: Khaled Shahwan

Title: Automotive Composites - 30 Years of Challenges, Collaborations, Innovations and Advanced Developments

In this session, a comprehensive overview of the progress and challenges in the field of automotive composites over the past 30 years will be presented. Keynote speakers will share insights on the evolution of composite technologies, their role in reducing vehicle weight and improving fuel efficiency, and the future trends in composite materials for the automotive industry.