1) When I see people I do not know feeling sad, I feel a need to reach out to them.
2) I spend a lot of time concerned about the well-being of humankind.
3) When I hear about someone (a stranger) going through a difficult time, I feel a great deal of compassion for him or her.
4) It is easy for me to feel the pain (and joy) experienced by others, even though I do not know them.
5) If I encounter a stranger who needs help, I would do almost anything I could to help him or her.
6) I feel considerable compassionate love for people from everywhere.
7) I would rather suffer myself than see someone else (a stranger) suffer.
8) If given the opportunity, I am willing to sacrifice in order to let the people from other places who are less fortunate achieve their goals.
9) I tend to feel compassion for people even though I do not know them.
10) One of the activities that provides me with the most meaning to my life is helping others in the world who need help.
11) I would rather engage in actions that help others, even though they are strangers, than engage in actions that would help me.
12) I often have tender feelings toward people (strangers) when they seem to be in need.
13) I feel a selfless caring for most of mankind.
14) I accept others whom I do not know even when they do things I think are wrong.
15) If a person (a stranger) is troubled, I usually feel extreme tenderness and caring.
16) I try to understand rather than judge people who are strangers to me.
17) I try to put myself in a stranger’s shoes when he or she is in trouble.
18) I feel happy when I see that others (strangers) are happy.
19) Those whom I encounter through work and public life can assume that I will be there for them if they need me.
20) I want to spend time with people I don’t know well so that I can help enrich their lives.
21) I very much wish to be kind and good to fellow human beings.

Scoring
