

PRODUCTION POLICY

Memo No. 8

Revised September, 2003

DISCOUNT TICKET POLICY

Drama Students

Drama majors only will be able to obtain quarterly vouchers called Pink Cards permitting the purchase of six tickets at a discounted price. These cards will be distributed by the Production Office at the beginning of each quarter. There is a limit of one card per student. The student may then purchase tickets at the Public Performing Arts Ticket Office for the cost of five dollars ($5.00) and one punch of the Pink Card. Pink Cards are valid only for Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday performances. Friday and Saturday performances are available at regular ticket prices only.

Other Students and Non-Drama University of Washington Staff

All other University of Washington students and staff may purchase a Play Card offering 6 admissions to the School's productions at a reduced rate. This offer is available for a limited time only through the Public Performing Arts Ticket Office, HUB Ticket Office and South Campus HUB Ticket Office. Blue Cards are valid for any performance.

Preview Performances

Tickets for preview performances are also five dollars and are available at the UW Arts Ticket Office.

PM8308/REV9-2003

Production Policy Memo no. 8, first established before 1985.

Subsequent revisions: 9/85, 7/89, 6/96

Executive Committee approval: 9/16/2003

Faculty Approval: 9/19/2003