From the Director

In Lake Washington near our house are two swimming rafts. Even though I know that they are fastened to the bottom they remain mysterious. The actors and I are working on various ways we understand balance—the physical sensation we've been working on continuously since birth and the figurative awareness we're also continuously evolving.

Studio 201 Series

Experimental in nature, intimate in theme...
Actors are faced with a bare stage and a big story.

Next Season in Studio 201...

Bold Girls by Rona Munro
Nov 14-23, 2003

Winner of the Blackburn Award, Bold Girls peers into the lives of four women in violence-torn Belfast.

The Work Room (L'Atelier) by Jean-Claude Grumberg
February 6-15, 2004

While post-war France is loathe to look at its complicity in the Holocaust, a young mother awaits word of her husband's fate as a Paris Jew arrested during the occupation under the authority of the Vichy government.

10 MINUTE PLAY FESTIVAL by various playwrights
February 27-March 7, 2004

Little. Wee. Petite. Diminutive. No matter how you describe this marathon of miniature proportions, there's no denying it's a huge hit! Come discover why Shakespeare proclaimed, "Brevity is the soul of wit."

ALL THE RAGE by Keith Reddin
May 14-23, 2004

When Helen awakes to the sight of a bloody corpse and the sound of her husband shouting "Call 9-1-1!" she can pretty much tell that it's going to be a bad day. A funhouse-mirror view of America's obsession with guns. Adult themes.
