

The Floyd and Delores Jones Playhouse

UW School of Drama

Name-a-Seat and Get into the Act!

Since 1931, the UW School of Drama's Playhouse Theatre has inspired, provoked, and delighted Seattle audiences with innovative productions and educational programs. One of the oldest continually operating theatres in North America, the Playhouse is undergoing a complete restoration. At long last, the historic theatre will be transformed into one of Seattle's premier performance venues as well as a state-of-the-art teaching lab for students.

Nearly $10.4 million has already been committed to fund the $11.2 million renovation. However, we still need to raise $800,000 to fully fund and equip the Playhouse with essential theatrical equipment. This is where you can get into the act!

You can become a permanent part of the new Jones Playhouse Theatre by naming a seat for $2,500. Each seat will bear an engraved brass plaque which can be inscribed as you wish. You can name a seat in honor or memory of a loved one, a special friend or even yourself.

The time to act is now! By naming a seat you provide critical support for restoring the Playhouse while leaving your own legacy to this historic theatre.
