

Year	Summer Qtr	Autumn Qtr	Winter Qtr	Spring Qtr
1	X	Look into / apply for research opportunities	Consider an EM Preceptorship	Go to EMIG meetings regarding EM & Match
2	Easiest time to do research Enjoy your last summer! (can still do research)	“The hardest quarter of med school” (good classes, frequent tests) Schedule 3rd yr. Read (look at Dan Olson’s clerkship reviews)	Possible time for preceptorship/elective?	Dr. Mengert’s critically acclaimed EM elective Go to EMIG meetings: ask for clerkship advice
3	June: ~4 wks off; take USMLE I before rotations Clerkships: start after July 4th weekend	Away Rotations: Start considering where to apply if interested Schedule 4th yr. DECLARE interest in EM for priority on EM rotation(s) in June, July, or August (last rotations on residency app’s)	Away Rotations: start applying early winter Meet with Advisor pre-application process	Go to EMIG meetings: email questions to seniors &amp; alumni about EM progs
4	July: Start ERAS, work on CV Aug: Ask for LOR’s, finish Personal Statement &amp; ERAS Early Sept: submit ERAS, earlier=better; round up any lagging LOR’s Take Step II CS &amp; CK by early fall (UW requirement)	Late November - January: PRIME INTERVIEW SEASON Plan on Taking December and/or January off for interviews Sept: Watch for ERAS receipt by A300 &amp; residencies Mid-Oct: Interview invites start coming in!! Nov 1: Dean’s MSPE out, the rest of invites come in the next couple weeks	Late February: Submit Rank Lists Mid-March: Match Day 3 weeks later	