

UW Focus the Nation Agenda
January 31, 2008 on the UW Campus
Updated: Wednesday, January 30, 2008

Time	Activity	Location	Contributors
10-5	Exhibition Space	HUB West Ballroom	Many
10-11	Global Warming: Facts, Fiction, and Solutions	HUB Auditorium	Thomas Ackerman Professor, Atmospheric Sciences, Director, Joint Institute for the Study of the Atmosphere and Ocean
11-12	Why Values Are the Glue of Social Movements	HUB Auditorium	David Domke Professor Communication
12-1	Presentation of multimedia "Facing Climate Change: Understanding Global Change Through Local People."	HUB 108	Multimedia Presentation
12-5:00	Seattle Climate Action Now's Climate Action Café	HUB West Ballroom	Get free coffee, a Clif bar and a donut and find out about action options from student and community groups
1:30-3	Panel Science at the Cutting Edge	HUB 106B	Moderator: Aaron Donohoe David Battisti, Atmospheric Sciences Ignatius Rigor, Polar Science Center, Applied Physics Laboratory Josh Tewksbury, Biology Richard Feely, NOAA/PMEL
1:30-3	Panel Green Building and the Urban Landscape in the 21 st Century	HUB 209A	Moderator: Daniel Friedman, College of Architecture and Urban Planning Nancy Rottle, Urban Design and Planning Tom Paladino, Paladino and Co. Jason McLennan, Cascadia Regional Green Building Council David Miller, Architecture
1:30-3	Panel Can Capitalism Save Us?	HUB 310	Moderator: Yoram Bauman, Program on the Environment Maria Damon, Evans School Kevin Lavery, UW Bothell Business Program Kevin Wilhelm, Sustainable Business Consulting and Todd Myers, Washington Policy Center

3-4:30	Panel Community Impacts of Climate Change: Public Health and the Environment	HUB 106B	Moderator: Ingrid Tohver, Climate Impacts Group , Alan Hamlet, Civil and Environmental Engineering Nate Mantua, Aquatic and Fisheries Sciences Roger Rosenblatt, Dept of Family Medicine Thomas Hinckley, College of Forest Resources
3-4:30	Panel The Politics and Ethics of Finding Solutions	HUB 108	Moderator: Andrew Light, Philosophy and the Evans School KC Golden, Climate Solutions Stephen Gardiner, Philosophy Ed Miles, School of Marine Affairs Michael Robinson Dorn, Law School
3-4:30	Panel Climate Change Impacts on Indigenous Populations	HUB 209A	Moderator: Stevan Harrell, Anthropology Mark Stege, Graduate Student, Business Administration Tim Pasch, Graduate Student, Communication Kemolangzin, Jiuzhaigou National Nature Reserve in the People's Republic of China. Terry Williams, Natural Resources Coordinator, Tulalip Tribes
3-4:30	Panel Where Will We Find the Energy? Technological Solutions to Global Warming	HUB 310	Moderator: Michael Lazarus, Stockholm Institute Brian Polagye, graduate student, Mechanical Engineering Caroline Harwood, Microbiology Pascal Storck, 3-Tier Guozhong Cao, Material Sciences and Engineering Renata Bura, College of Forest Resources
7-9 pm	Town Meeting with Politicians on Solutions to Climate Change	Kane 130	Moderator: Steve Scher (NPR). King County Executive Ron Sims, Mayor Greg Nickels, State Representative Fred Jarrett and State Senator Phil Rockefeller. Introductory remarks by UW President Mark Emmert.,

			recorded comments by Representative Jay Inslee
--	--	--	---

Information and Contacts

For up to date schedule and registration, see <http://depts.washington.edu/uwfocus/>

For questions and comments, please e-mail uwfocus@u.washington.edu

Faculty lead is LuAnne Thompson, Interim Director of the Program on Climate Change.