***

Do you feel that the program chosen for this performance was appropriate for the performance level of the students? Was it appropriate for the nature of the event? Why or why not?

How long did the entire performance last? Was it an appropriate length for the student performers? The audience?

What was the venue for this performance? Do you feel that it added to or detracted from the students' performance experience? In what way?

Describe the audience. How large was it? Whom did it include (parents, peers, other performers)? How did they respond to the program? To which parts/selections was the response most positive? Most negative?

Did the performance include any activity other than the playing of "pieces"? How did this add or detract from the overall experience?

Observe the performers' behavior before, during and after the performance. What differences, if any, did you notice as the event progressed?

Overall, do you feel that this was a successful event in the eyes of the students involved? The teacher(s) who coordinated it? Why or why not?

Identify one idea you took away from this experience that you would want to keep in mind as you plan your own performance events.
