What is the Vice President's Club?

The Vice President's Club is a way of thanking our most generous alumni and friends who give annually to the Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity (OMA&D). As a Vice President's Club member, you can give to a diverse list of funds that support what matters to you. Through OMA&D, you can make a gift to student scholarships, programs, services, cultural and civic activities, and facilities.

Why Join?

When you give at the Vice President's Club level, you join a group of people who care deeply about strengthening economic and academic support for low income and first generation students. OMA&D donors also make it possible for students to access educational enrichment programs, such as study abroad and undergraduate research. When you support University of Washington students, you not only provide critical financial resources, you demonstrate to students that you believe in their potential and you know they can succeed.

Becoming a member of the Vice President's Club

The Vice President's Club recognizes donors who contribute $1,000 or more annually to funds within the Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity. Gifts matched by your employer or your spouse's employer count toward recognition.

The Young Leaders membership level is available to alumni 35 years of age or younger who contribute $500 or more annually to funds within the Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity.
